PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am a highly motivated Medical Laboratory scientist, dedicated and with extensive experience in Laboratory Biochemistry and immunology. I am equipped with a wide range of soft skills and I excel in different techniques such as a team leader where I have been serving for (5)years. My tasks vary from delegating tasks to maintaining quality of results in the lab to making sure everything goes smoothly in a demanding process of everyday service for the Clinic. My dedication, work ethic and professionalism are reflected in my commitment to ensure the patients get the best results.
